AN ETERNAL QUEST FOR TIMELESS BEAUTY

It all began in Montreux, Switzerland, beneath the majestic summits of the alps. This historic land by the ancient shores of Lake Léman was home to the Clinique La Prairie. There, a brilliant doctor believed that science would one day unlock the secret of eternal youth.

After years of research, he found a way to restore and prolong health and vitality. His ideas were revolutionary and unconventional, yet so effective that they became a cult secret, whispered about in the circles of nobility, royalty and celebrity.

The Clinique La Prairie became a pristine sanctuary of rejuvenation, a place where time stood still. Experience this promise of timeless beauty in our exquisite The Art of Beauty treatments. Discover our exclusive state-of-the-art Swiss Cellular Skincare, unique treatment methods and tailored massage techniques.
